

WELL Health Recognized as a TSX Venture 50 Company for the Third Year in a Row

- WELL was the top ranked company in the Diversified Industries Sector with a market cap increase of 385% and a share price increase of 247% in 2019.

Vancouver, BC, February 21, 2020 - WELL Health Technologies Corp. (TSX: WELL) (the “Company” or “WELL”), a company focused on consolidating and modernizing clinical and digital assets within the primary healthcare sector, is pleased to announce it has been named as one of the Venture 50 Companies for 2020 by the TSX Venture Exchange. WELL was the top ranked company in the Diversified Industries Sector with a market cap increase of 385% and a share price increase of 247% in 2019. WELL also previously received this award in 2018 and 2019.

“We are once again honored to be recognized by the TSX Venture Exchange,” said Hamed Shahbazi, Chairman and CEO of WELL. “The TSX Venture Exchange has been a great platform for WELL to develop its business and has been a fantastic stepping-stone leading to our graduation to the TSX Exchange earlier this year.”

The 2020 TSX Venture 50 is a ranking of the top performers on the TSX Venture Exchange over the last year. The ranking is comprised of 10 companies from each of the five industry sectors, selected based on three equally weighted criteria which are market capitalization growth, share price appreciation, and trading volume.
